A Message from Fr. Aaron The Light of the World

Dear Friends,

"Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you." (Isaiah 60:1) This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Epiphany. We celebrate the Three Wisemen who journeyed from the east in search of the Messiah King. They followed the bright star to where they finally saw and did him homage. Today is the conclusion of the Christmas Season on the liturgical calendar, so it would be an appropriate time to take down the Christmas decorations and lights, if you decide to. Some people might wish to let the Christmas spirit linger a bit longer and wait until the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, on February 2nd, which has traditionally been the liturgical end of the season. It is good to see the festive decorations out for an extended time past Christmas as they help remind us to live in the new light of Christ all year long.

As the song says, "We three Kings of orient are bearing gifts we traverse afar..." The three mysterious figures in the scriptures were known to be learned and influential men from a far-off land. These details are not insignificant when we stop to think about it. They seemingly had power, intelligence, social standing and were likely financially well to do. And yet, they made this long and difficult journey to find a little baby lying in the hay in a cool and dark cave. Were they disappointed? Hardly. The Kings laid prostrate (face down) in front of the Christ Child as a sign of worship and honor. Then they gave him three costly and precious gifts; gold, a gift fit for a King, frankincense, a gift used for worship, and myrrh, a gift for his future death and burial.

Three Kings, who were not believers of the Jewish Faith, represent a longing in the human heart for God's truth and light in Jesus Christ, the Savior of the world. From a worldly standpoint they had many things, and yet these Three Kings were wise enough to know that the world did not satisfy or set them free. They followed the light that led them to the true Light of the World who is salvation, peace and true wisdom.

May we let ourselves be led by the only light that can truly fulfill the desires of our heart and set us free.

God Bless You,
Father Aaron

Traveling Chalice & Madonna

The Church Needs Disciples Today, as the Church is shrinking and many have stopped practicing the faith; it is time for those who are engaged in the life of the church to rise up and start a grassroots movement of spreading the faith that they love so much. This can seem daunting, but the good news is that Franciscan University of Steubenville has created Discipleship Quads to equip and support anyone who wishes to grow in faith and "go rebuild the church." St. Francis of Assisi received this call from Christ and it still echoes through the church today. The Traveling Chalice & Madonna of St. Anthony and Assumption are asked to pray for disciples.
