A Message from Father Aaron

Advent: Rejoicing in the Lord

Dear Friends,

As we celebrate "Christ the King", the King of Heaven and Earth this Sunday, we come to the end of the liturgical year. This means that we begin a new liturgical year next Sunday, which is the First Sunday of Advent. I know... it is hard to believe how quickly time flies by. But so it is, we enter into the wonderful Season of Advent, a season of preparation and waiting for the Lord to come, our cause for rejoicing. The psalm antiphon for the First Sunday of Advent this year is, "Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord."

The word Advent comes from the Latin "adventus," which means a coming, approach, or arrival. It refers to the period encompassing the four Sundays prior to Christmas. It is a time of penance, (the reason for purple or violet) of turning away from sin and a hopeful, joyous preparation for the coming of the Savior.

So what are we preparing and waiting for in Advent? We are preparing for the coming of Jesus Christ into the world, primarily on the Solemnity of the Nativity, otherwise known as Christmas Day. It is the celebration of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, the Word made Flesh, to save us from sin and redeem us. "Emmanuel," means God with us.

However, they're layers to this time of preparation for Christ in Advent as well. It has been said that there are three comings of Christ which are; Christ has come in history, Christ comes in mystery, and Christ comes in majesty. Christ's coming in history is the Incarnation. Christ's coming in mystery is his presence here on earth through the Sacraments; like Baptism, Confession and the Holy Eucharist. Also, his abiding presence to us through the Holy Spirit at all times and in every moment. Also, his presence in each baptized Christian themselves and in the other, as each of us are "Alter Christus," or "other Christs." And Christ is present to us in the poor and those in need. These are the ways Christ is present to us here and now in the mystery of our faith.

The third coming of Christ is in majesty. In the Second Coming into the world that he has promised he will come to be the judge of all. "I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power." (2 Timothy 4:1) By preparing well for Christ in history and mystery, we will be well prepared for his coming in majesty. May God bless you this Advent Season, and may his coming be the cause of your rejoicing.

In Christ,
Father Aaron

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Mass for Thanksgiving Day will be at 9:00 AM at St. Anthony's.

Hospitality/Greeter Ministry

The purpose is to live the Gospel call to evangelize through personal encounter, attending to others' needs, being available, and prayerfully making others feel welcome. If you are interested, please contact the parish office.

No Wednesday Religion

This Wednesday, November 23rd, there will be no Wednesday Religion due to Thanksgiving.

Prayer for 11th grade Confirmation Retreat Dec 2nd-4th

Our Confirmation students will be going away for retreat from Friday night at 4:30pm thru Sunday at 11am. Please keep them in your prayers along with those speakers, leaders, and guides. As we pray: Oh Merciful Father, grant that Your Divine Spirit may enable all Your faithful to be fruitful in good works for the glory of Your majesty and for the spiritual and material well being of all people. Holy Spirit, cleanse, inflame and enlighten the minds and hearts of our Confirmation students on their retreat. Please bless the retreat with your gifts and great grace. We ask this through the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sock Religious Fundraiser You can support our Puerto Rico mission trip by buying Sock Religious products. You can visit this website at <https://stores.inksoft.com/youthfund/shop/home>. Half of the proceeds go to reduce the cost of the trip. Any questions can be addressed to Sam.

Silence & Prayer after Mass As we seek to prepare for the coming of Christ this Advent we are mindful of the need to pray in silence. Starting in the first week of Advent, I will be inviting the congregation to a time of thanksgiving after Mass. The prayer of thanksgiving after Mass is a special time to reflect on the gift of the Eucharist and the gifts we have received, even if for a few moments. I will invite all after the final hymn to kneel or sit down and pray the "Anima Christi" prayer in the back of the hymnal together. After the prayer as you depart, I ask that you please respect silence for those who wish to stay longer and wait until outside or you are in the parish hall to resume conversation. Thank you!

Adoration Announcement

The Adoration chapel will close on Thanksgiving day at 8:00 a.m, and reopen on Friday at 8:00 a.m.

Holiday Porch Planters

The Faith Formation Office will be selling Holiday Porch Planters to help raise funds for Alejandro; the Mexican orphan we support throughout the year. Once the planters arrive, they will be ready for pick-up after the 4pm and 8am Masses. Limited quantity available. They are made with fresh Spruce tops and assorted mixed greens. They are minimally decorated and all have a bow. If you would like to donate to the orphan but do not need or want a planter we will have a donation basket available for that as well.

Additional Ushers Needed!

The Assumption Church is looking to grow it's usher ministry. If you are interested in helping serve the parish in this way let the office know.

Multiple Donations

When donating to multiple parish groups and collections, please make out separate checks for each donation. For example: you should make out one check for the Sunday "adult envelope" collection and a separate check for "World Mission Sunday". This makes it immensely easier for our money counters to count the collection. Thank you for your attention to this detail!

Traveling Chalice & Madonna

HOLINESS is a challenge for all of us, whatever our specific vocations. We are called to be holy in all aspects of our lives. This is an ongoing process, often slowed by setbacks. When the saints were alive, they did not regard themselves as saints; rather, they knew they were sinners — and they strived to be saints. The process of becoming holy is, even for saints, filled with struggle. Know you are a sinner; strive to be a saint. Thank you for your continued prayers for vocations! If you would like to volunteer to host the Traveling Chalice and Madonna for a week, contact Mary Jo Ruhland or Jay Schoenecker.

All Souls Remembrance

During November we remember the deceased, especially our dearly departed loved ones and members from our parishes from this past year. Please pray for them and for all the poor souls in purgatory.

REST IN PEACE

Our heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends of:

† Lloyd Ley, 81, who passed away on October 24th. A graveside service was held on November 8th at the St. Anthony's Cemetery. Please remember Lloyd and his family and friends in your prayers during this time.

Soup & Bouja Sunday On November 20th the Catholic Order of Foresters will be selling their delicious homemade chicken noodle soup and Bouja. Soup: $16; Bouja: $17. Your extra ice cream pails would also be appreciated! You can drop them off at church. Thank you!

Adoration Announcement Adoration will be closed this week on Thanksgiving day. There will be no adoration this week.

Pro-Works Christmas Gifts We will be collecting gifts for the Pro-Works from Litchfield this year. If you are unable to bring them to our Christmas party there will be a box in the new addition of church for you to place your gifts. They are looking for personal hygiene items, easy puzzles, games and word searches, notebooks and pens. What they really appreciate are gift cards or certificates to the local businesses so the clients can choose what they like or need. (No clothing, food or blankets.) All gifts should be in a gift bag. If you want to make a cash donation or give a gift certificate, put it in the collection basket and mark the envelope: Pro-Works. The last day to drop off gifts will be December 14. Thank you for your generosity! -CCW officers

Additional Ushers Needed! The Church of St. Anthony is looking to grow it's usher ministry! If you are interested in helping serve the parish in this way contact Chad Huberty at 290-1131 or let the office know.
