A Message from Father Aaron

Rich in What Matters to God

Dear Friends,

When I was younger I remember making a list of things I wanted to attain. I would make the list and put it in my desk and would add to it when I thought of another item. The list was full of things like, new CD's and DVD's, clothes, sporting equipment, etc. The list rarely got shorter because I always found new things to add. As I look back on that on that practice I can clearly see now that the list was almost entirely made of material possessions that I didn't really need, and the list was almost entirely for me! Something else is also clear to me, which is, that period of my life was the most unhappy period.

This Sunday, in the Gospel of Luke, we are reminded by Jesus that we should seek to be rich in what matters to God and guard ourselves against the temptation to greed and love of possessions. Jesus says, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Putting material possessions in front of spiritual matters is not only something that will not be fulfilling and will eventually make us unhappy, it is more importantly, the sin of idolatry, against the First Commandment. "I am the Lord thy God, Thou shalt not have strange gods before Me."

Doing a good inventory on a regular basis of where we spend our time and how we spend our money is a very good thing. It can tell us where are priorities are and how much time we spend doing what is making us rich in the world, and how much time we spend doing what is making us rich in Christ.

Another very wise practice to do each day, (or even multiple times each day) is an examination of conscience, (which is examining our day in our thoughts, words and actions) and also an examination of consciousness. (which is an examination of how we were aware of God's presence to us during the day) This invaluable time spent pondering our daily lives can help us help grow rich in what matters to God. In this way, as we look at our own "To Do" lists for the day, the spiritual riches take priority over the material.

Jesus urgently calls us to prioritize our lives as he says, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?" Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." May God give us all the grace to live this daily.

God bless you,
Father Aaron

Since the overturning of Roe, states like Minnesota, who do not have any life protecting laws from abortion, will become epicenters for abortion. Our work in Minnesota has just increased exponentially! We know the only way Minnesota will once again become a protector of life is from the grace of God. All of God's graces start with prayer. There is a Novena for Life to Our Lady of Guadalupe at the entrances of the Assumption and St. Anthony's churches. We ask that you please take one and pray for our state of Minnesota that God will convert the hearts of our government leaders to pass legislation that will protect all life from conception to natural death. Thank you.
